Health watchdog slams maternity services at Queen's Hospital

CRITICAL: MP Margaret Hodge during a surprise visit to Queen's Hospital, Romford last month.

Picture by Martin Dalton

'CLEAN UP OR CLOSE'

By Peter Henn

QUEEN'S Hospital maternity ward could be forced to shut down if it does not become safer.

NHS watchdog, the Care Quality Commission (CQC), has told the Trust it needs to improve its levels of staffing and make sure workers are doing jobs they are trained for, as well as provide safe care for the expectant mothers, by Wednesday, March 30.

The Trust will also need to make sure equipment used for the safe care of women and their babies, is available, properly maintained and working by Friday, April 15.

If they do not meet the deadlines, they will face prosecution and could have a reduction of services imposed, which, in the most extreme case, could force the unit to close temporarily.

CQC spokesman Rob Williams said: "We don't want this to happen - we want the Trust to get itself sorted out - but this could happen."

The Trust's chief executive, Averil Dongworth, admitted her organisation had 'not always got maternity care right', and accepted the report, which it would use to 'drive forward' changes and improvements.

She added: "Funding is in place to bring 49 extra midwives to the Trust, and we've recruited half of those posts this week.

"I'm confident the improvements will see us fully complying with national requirements, and I will ensure changes are brought about quickly and safely."

This is not the first time in recent months that Queen's maternity unit has been the subject of controversy.

Poor staffing levels caused Frances Randall, from Rosedale Road, Rise Park, to give birth to her son, Frederick, in a waiting room at the hospital in December.

The news also comes as the Trust faces protests over plans to close the maternity ward at King George Hospital, Goodmayes.

Medical director Stephen Burgess told Ilford South MP Mike Gapes

that the maternity ward at King George would have to close because it was unable to attract staff who, instead, went to hospitals closer to the centre of London to get Inner London weighting on their salaries - a claim which was later retracted.

Margaret Hodge, MP for Barking, said: "This latest report, the second to be released since the New Year, confirms what we already knew - that the Trust's management is simply not robust.

"How on earth they think they can manage maternity services without additional beds at King George when they are failing at Queen's defies belief."

Man stabbed

DETECTIVES from Newham are appealing for witnesses following a stabbing in Canning Town.

The incident happened in Freemasons Road at around 7.30pm on Friday.

The victim, who was attacked by two men, was taken to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

Both suspects are described as black and aged in their 20s - if you have any information, call 020 7275 571.

New walk-in clinic

A NEW walk-in clinic for men with prostate problems has opened.

The centre is located at the Newham African-Caribbean Resource Centre in Barking Road, Plaistow.

The clinic is available to men over the age of 40 and is open from 2-7.30pm each Monday and Tuesday.

The clinic also offers men a series of prostate related tests, if required, with test results provided immediately.

Bus crime falls

CRIME on the borough's transport network has fallen.

The latest figures from Transport for London (TfL) show that there was an eight per cent drop in the number of bus crimes committed from October to December last year, compared to the same period in 2009/10.

The figures show that a total of 293 crimes were committed, compared to 319 a year ago.

WIN! Family tickets to a Enchanted Weekend

ADVENTURE Island is pulling out all the stops for family fun this year with a line-up of exciting weekends.

Its Enchantment Weekend, which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17, kick-starts the fun with Shaolin monks, stilt walkers, entertainers, balloon modellers and lots more.

There will also be a petting zoo and fairytale characters - and because Adventure Island is free to enter, anyone can enjoy the fun.

Adventure Island is a great place for the family, thanks to 32 amazing rides. The theme park is also creating two new rides, which will open later this year, including a brand new rollercoaster for the whole family, Kiddi-Koasta, and an experience ride called
The Time Machine.

Up-and-coming events include a Circus Weekend on July 30 and 31; a Talk Like a Pirate Weekend on September
17 and 18; Big Saturday
Nights Out on September 10,
17 and 24, October 1, 8, 15,
22 and 29, and November 5;
and a Fright Fantastic event to celebrate Halloween, from October 28 to 30.

There will also be stilt walkers, balloon modellers and entertainers at the park on other weekends throughout the year, so why not join the park for some family fun?

Mini Bands, which allow unlimited goes on 14 rides for children under one metre start from £9; Junior Bands, which allow unlimited access to 24 rides for those between one metre and 1.2m tall, cost from £15; while Big Adventure
Bands for those who are 1.2m tall or over cost from £19.

The park also offers a range of deals including free rail travel and half price ride bands from 6pm on peak days.

Adventure Island is now open every weekend up until November 6. It is also open throughout June, July and August, as well as during school holidays in April, May and October.

Theatre group to spread the word about burglars

By Martyn Dolton

A PERFORMANCE to raise awareness of distraction burglaries is coming to Barking next week.

The production of 'Ma Kelly's Doorstep' will be performed by the Attic Theatre Company on Friday, at Barking United at 79 Blake Avenue and Elim Church, in Axe Street.

The show at Barking United will take place at noon and 3.30pm at Elim Church. Places are free for elderly residents.

There will also be police officers on hand to answer any questions about personal safety and home security routines.

Sergeant Lucy Cenizo, who organised the event, said: "This type of burglar targets vulnerable members of the community.

"Through this presentation, we hope to empower senior residents to say 'no' to strangers who call without appointments."

Anyone interested in attending the performance should call Eastbury Safer Neighbourhoods Team on 020 8721 2572.

ADVICE: Police officers Dave Scallan and Jamie Jordan promote the show.

Iconic rings unveiled

By Martyn Dolton

THE FIRST giant Olympic rings have been unveiled to transform London into an Olympic city.

The rings were launched at St Pancras International station by Seb Coe, chairman of the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games (LOCOG), and Mayor of London, Boris Johnson.

The rings were built in Hitchin, Hertfordshire, over four weeks by a team of 25 people.

The aluminium rings measure 20m by 9m and weigh 2,300kg.

They were transported by lorry in 39 separate parts to St Pancras, where they were secretly assembled and installed over seven nights.

The Olympic rings are suspended from the roof of the Barlow Train Shed at the station.

Lord Coe said: "The Olympic rings are an iconic symbol, inspiring athletes and uniting people around the world.

"To athletes, they represent the culmination of thousands of hours of training and reaching the highest level in sport, and to Londoners and visitors alike, they will excite and inspire them about being in a Host City and demonstrate that we are ready to welcome the world in 2012."

BMX circuit

WORK is underway on the Olympic BMX Circuit.

The BMX Circuit is located next to the Velodrome in the north of the Olympic Park. It will have 6,000 temporary seats to host the Olympic BMX competition in 2012.

After the Games, the seating will be removed and the circuit reconfigured to make it suitable for riders of all ages and abilities.

LAUNCH: Seb Coe and Boris Johnson unveil the first giant Olympic Rings.

The Royal Wedding

THE Royal Wedding is now just seven weeks away. Yellow Advertiser will be publishing a special edition to mark the occasion and we want you to be a part of it.

We will feature four competitions for the Royal Wedding edition.

First, we want artists of any age to send us their Royal Wedding images. These could be created in spray paint or crayon, just so long as you are not a professional artist. The winning entry may appear on the front page.

We also want to see the chef in you come up with a recipe inspired by the occasion - a Royal dish full of imagination with the winner featured in full. And thirdly, we want those with a penchant for prose to come up with a love poem for the occasion, again with the best featured in full.

The deadline for each of these competitions is midday on Friday, April 1.

Our final competition is for those with a knack for photography. We want to see the pictures that best sum up the occasion in your community.

The deadline will be 11am on Monday, May 2, and again, no professional photographers please.

Are you getting married on Friday, April 29, too? We want to hear from couples who will share their big day with Wills and Kate.

We'd also like to hear from you if you are a William married to a Kate, or vice versa. Or if you share a name with either of the Royal couple.

We'd also like to know if you're holding any special events to mark the occasion? Perhaps you're arranging a party at work, school or in your street. Let us know so we can tell others to come along, and send us pictures of your event with a few brief details.

If you can remember any previous Royal weddings, we'd also like to hear your memories - write to Royal Wedding, Yellow Advertiser, Acorn House, Great Oaks, Basildon, Essex, SS14 1AH or e-mail royalwedding@yellowad.co.uk

Want to stop smoking? We're here to help you

By Martyn Dolton

BARKING and Dagenham's Stop Smoking team will be out in force this week to help people quit.

As part of National Stop Smoking Week, the team has been hitting the streets to talk to local people about the stop smoking service, help them complete a 'quit quiz', and register smokers with the Stop Smoking service.

People who complete the 'quit quiz' will be entered into prize draw to win £100 worth of shopping vouchers.

Smoking is the main cause of avoidable illness and early death in Barking and Dagenham.

One in every two smokers dies from a smoking related disease, and more people smoke in the borough than nearly anywhere else in London.

Linda Bailey, NHS Barking and Dagenham's consultant in public health, said: "We know it's hard to give up - smoking is addictive. But the stop smoking service can help you give up, free of charge.

"If you find the right support, rather than trying to give up on your own, you're four times more likely to quit smoking for good.

The Stop Smoking team will be at Asda Dagenham and Barking Station today (Thursday) and will return to Barking Station tomorrow (Friday).

The team will then be at The Mall in Dagenham on Saturday.

Find out more about the Stop Smoking service by calling 020 8532 6284

"How can I find an NHS dentist?"

"It's easy. There are lots of us."

There are now lots of NHS dentists in your area, and they're accepting new patients.

Everyone can make an appointment for a check-up, which is free for children and exempt adults (£16.50 if you're not exempt*). You'll also be able to pick up tips and advice on how to take care of your teeth.

To find a local NHS dentist please call 0845 4647, text SMILE to 64746
or visit www.nhs.uk/dentists

* NHS treatment is free if you're under 18, under 19 and in full-time education, pregnant or receiving certain benefits. For full details please visit the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk

Essex-based developer launches new homes in London

Housebuilder Weston Homes has launched a new luxury waterside housing development in Uxbridge, North London. Located between the River Colne and Grand Union Canal, the King's Island scheme was unveiled to the public last weekend following a ceremonial launch on 2nd March 2011 overseen by the company's founder and chairman, Bob Weston, and Sharron Davies, the champion swimmer turned media figure and television commentator.

The private gated development, built on the site of the William King Flour Mill, with views over the waters of the river and canal, will feature a wide selection of apartments and townhouses.

The Victorian mill building is set to be refurbished and converted to apartments. Two new apartment blocks will also be created. In all, the finished scheme will comprise 127 one- and two-bedroom apartments and 24 new and converted three- and four-bedroom townhouses.

Prices range from £180,995 to over £700,000.

Bob Weston says: "There is a continuing demand for family homes in the UK. King's Island provides a perfect setting for families, which include some of the finest luxury finishes available on the market today. The new-build apartments offer a blend of modern architecture and sympathetic renovation and a level of comfort and style that will last long into the future and are ideal for couples or downsizers."

Weston Homes, named What House? Housebuilder of the Year 2010, is renowned for the high level of standard specification in all its new homes.

The impressive specification of the four-bedroom show home includes: en-suite wet-rooms to the two main bedrooms; ceramic stone floors and underfloor heating feature on the ground floor; a high-quality kitchen fully equipped with fitted, name-brand appliances and with a separate utility room; a delightful large deck overlooking the weir, accessible by space-saving concertina doors from the kitchen and living room; and a secluded roof deck and study sharing the top floor with the master bedroom suite, complete with its wet-room and dressing area.

The new apartments will have a balcony or terrace accessible from the open-plan kitchen/dining room and all of the two-bedroom designs benefit from an en-suite to the master bedroom in addition to the main bathroom. Allocated parking is also provided.

With relatively few new homes developments in Uxbridge on the market, interest in this scheme is expected to be high. As well as local residents, the company is targeting overseas and expat investors searching for new homes in London's suburbs which can provide them with steady tenancy and good returns.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'IT' etc in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company. 13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Raiders see off league leaders

Ice Hockey

ROMFORD Raiders avenged last Saturday's 2-1 defeat on the Isle Of Wight in some style, dispatching league-leading Wightlink Raiders 7-2 at Rom Valley Way.

JJ McGrath earned a decisive fight win over Wightlink player-coach Jeremy Cornish after just 90 seconds, before the home Raiders jumped out to a 2-0 lead behind goals from Juraj Huska and captain Anthony Leone.

Dom Hopkins and Alex Murray restored parity for Wightlink in a tight second period, Murray jamming the puck past Romford goaltender Michael Gray with just three seconds remaining on the clock.

Romford dominated an open third period, scoring five times without reply as Matt Colclough wilted in the visitors net.

Tom Davis, McGrath, Huska, Leone and Billy Phillips all scored in a quickfire spell as Romford put an end to the visitors 23-game unbeaten run.

The two sides will meet again in Romford next Sunday for the second leg of the 'Raiders Cup'.

Romford travel to Bristol on the Saturday looking for two more league points to further cement their playoff position.

Barking lose lead while Southend earn good win

BARKING lost the lead at the top of National League One despite winning 20-23 at Blaydon on Saturday.

London Scottish won 29-11 over Cinderford but picked up a bonus point to move ahead of Barking. The Eastenders had to come from behind to pick up victory, and were made to pay from missed conversions from Blaydon.

Converted tries from Barking's Scott Shaw and Simon Barber made it 7-7 inside the first 14 minutes.

But despite Adam Armstrong's penalty, Blaydon moved ahead thanks to unconverted tries from David Williams and Jason Smithson.

Armstrong and Matt Mellish exchanged penalties to make it 20-16, before Tom Cobb ran over the vital try for Barking on 66 minutes, converted by Armstrong.

Southend maintained fourth place in National Two South with a 18-26 win at Clifton.

Tries from Mike Stanley and Mark Billings, plus kicks from Andrew Frost secured the win.

In London One North, Westcliff worked hard for their 13-24 win at Letchworth Garden City, while Chingford suffered another defeat, losing 12-8 to in form Eton Manor.

Thurrock lost out 16-3 at Colchester, while Brentwood came out on top in an exciting match against bottom side Stevenage Town, winning 38-29. Woodford had no answer to Sidcup in second, losing 47-0.

Rochford Hundred maintain a point lead over Braintree in London Two North East following their 24-0 victory over Saffron Walden.

Romford & Gidea Park remain third with a 15-17 victory at Old Streetonians, while Chelmsford are just a point behind following their 36-17 win over Sudbury.

Canvey Island saw off Beccles by 19-11.

Leyton Orient

Orient win again

LEYTON Orient extended their unbeaten run to 12 games in League One with a 2-0 win at Walsall on Tuesday night.

The O's also kept themselves in the play-off hunt, with four games in hand behind MK Dons in the final spot, although they are eight points adrift.

Russell Slade's men should have been behind twice to Walsall - managed by former O's assistant manager Dean Smith.

Julian Gray saw his shot rebound off the crossbar, along with Marc-Antoine Gbarrsin's volley moments later.

But on-loan Spurs striker Harry Kane put Orient ahead just before half-time, heading home Dean Cox's cross.

Walsall, who slipped back into the relegation zone following Dagenham & Redbridge's win, were finished off by Orient in the 56th minute.

Super sub Jonathan Tehoue finished off Matt Spring's pass, just six minutes after his introduction.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers climb out

DAGENHAM & Redbridge climbed out of the relegation zone of League One with a 1-0 victory over Colchester United on Tuesday night.

The Daggers made it back-to-back wins for the first time this season following their 2-0 victory at fellow relegation battlers Bristol Rovers on Saturday.

It was a great start for John Still's men who took the lead against their Essex rivals after 11 minutes when good work by Romain Vincelot enabled Bas Savage to nudge the ball home.

However, the match proved a cagey affair with U's offering little - Ian Henderson's late free-kick which hit Jon Nurse in the wall showed what few chances they created.

A vital three points for the Daggers, who still have several games in hand.

Hammers boosted with consecutive victories

West Ham United

WEST Ham United made it two consecutive wins following their 3-0 victory over Stoke at Upton Park on Saturday.

Goals from Demba Ba, Manuel da Costa and Thomas Hitzlsperger secured the victory against a tough Stoke side, who went into the game on a run of five successive away defeats.

Hammers boss Avram Grant said: "It's a happy dressing room, first because we're winning and second because of our belief about our football.

"I'm very pleased with Ba and Hitzlsperger, they are players we wanted to sign - many players are on loan but they belong to us so it's very good.

"When everyone's fit you see big competition and we have momentum."

The Hammers - buoyed by their victory over Liverpool the previous weekend - started slowly and Stoke nearly took the lead when Jon Walters' flick was pushed over by Irons keeper Robert Green.

It sparked West Ham into life and they went 1-0 up in the 23rd minute when confusion between Stoke keeper Asmir Begovic and defender Marc Wilson allow Ba to poke the ball into an empty net.

It was soon 2-0 as Hitzlsperger's free-kick was met by an unmarked da Costa to head home.

The Hammers were in control and both Hitzlsperger and Freddie Piquionne came close before the half-time whistle.

Stoke made changes to gain a foothold in the match, but only a Rory Delap long-range shot tested Green.

Another defensive mix-up in the Stoke defence nearly allowed Carlton Cole to steal in for a third, but Begovic recovered well to block.

The Hammers put the game beyond any doubt when Hitzlsperger fired home after Stoke failed to clear Piquionne's shot.

It was West Ham's first back-to-back victories in the Premiership since last April and lifted themselves out of the relegation zone in the process.

Pressure mounts up for City and Thurrock with defeats

Non-League Football

THE WHEELS seem to be coming off Chelmsford City's promotion charge in Blue Square South after the Clarets suffered another shock defeat, losing 3-0 at strugglers Hampton & Richmond Borough on Tuesday night.

City have not won in the league since Valentine's Day, and are losing momentum in their battle to gain a play-off place.

Second half goals from Dave Tarpey, Charlie Moore and James Simmonds consigned City to another away defeat, following their 2-1 loss at Eastleigh on Saturday, which will be cause for concern for head coach Glenn Pennyfather.

Thurrock have been dragged back into the relegation fight after losing 3-0 at home to Basingstoke Town.

Three goals in 11 minutes from Darren Wheeler, Delano Sam-Yorke and Greg Draper put the game beyond doubt by the hour mark.

AFC Hornchurch are back in the play-off places with Martin Tuohy scoring the only goal against his former club Aveley to secure the win.

Tuohy struck on 36 minutes to boost the Urchins but keep the Millers in the relegation dogfight.

It was the second time the Urchins won against bottom-four opposition after their win against Croydon Athletic on Saturday by the same scoreline, with the same scorer in the form of Tuohy.

Billerica Town slipped out of the play-offs in Ryman League Premier after suffering a shock 1-0 defeat at lowly Hastings United - Ollie Rowe heading in the goal.

Concord Rangers slipped down after losing 2-1 at Cray Wanderers. Tony Dolby and Leigh Bremner put Crays ahead in the second half.

Tony Stokes pulled a goal back for Concord but it was not enough.

Canvey Island remain in the play-off chasing pack after a comfortable 3-1 win over Horsham.

Rob King, Jason Hallett and Alex Rhodes saw Gulls in control before Jamie Cade's consolation for the visitors.

Aveley won 2-1 at Hendon. Tony Russell and Danny Slatter put the Millers 2-0 up in the first half, and despite Brian Haule quickly pulling a goal back for Hendon, Aveley hung on.

East Thurrock United returned to the top of Ryman League Division One North beaty near neighbours Tilbury 3-2 on Tuesday night.

Hakeem Araba gave Rocks a fourth minute lead, but Tilbury surprisingly went ahead by 34 minutes through Jack West and Ben Bradbury's penalty.

However, Lee Cornhill levelled with a header just after the hour mark before Araba headed home a last minute winner.

Third place Brentwood Town
